1. A meeting of the Panhellenic Organization of Reserve Officers was held on 3 August in Piraeus.
2. This organization has a membership of about 20,000 reserve and retired officers throughout Greece, and is headed by Georgios Karamanos, a lawyer and retired reserve officer.
3. At the meeting Colonel Lambropoulos, an honorably discharged and retired officer, stated that the organization must be alerted because of the efforts to set up a service government under Themistocles Sophoulis and the Center which would, in fact, be a Left-Wing government.
4. Lambropoulos implied that he had been ordered to alert the organizations.
